Ref. S130

History, beauty, and a heart-stopping Cantabrian landscape.

12 habitaciones

15 baños

890 m² de superficie

1.060 m² de terreno

This stately 17th century period home, boasting its own coat of arms, garnered a prestigious architecture award for its spectacular refurbishment.

The perfect blend of history and architecture in the wonderful region of Cantabria.

All ten of its bedrooms have en-suite bathrooms, and three of them are full suites, making the property equally perfect for operation as a charming hotel or an idyllic, spacious private home.

It offers two large, airy living rooms and two dining rooms with their own cosy fireplaces, as well as a fully equipped industrial-grade kitchen, laundry facilities and a pantry. It also boasts its own wine cellar.

The property features separate living quarters for the owners / business managers with a living room and two en-suite bedrooms.

It is fully fitted with a range of luxurious works of art on display, including oil paintings, sculptures, antique furniture and Persian rugs.

This elegant home could not be better located. It sits just half an hour from Santander airport and from the port, offering links by ferry with the UK and Ireland.

The local vicinity also offers ski stations, prestigious golf courses and breath-taking natural landscapes.

This property's historical spirit and natural surroundings are a source of endless joy and indulgence, making it a perfect home or compelling get-away for tourists.
