Unique architect-designed home overlooking San Jerónimo el Real. Madrid
Ref. S77

Completely refurbished with sensational views.

4 habitaciones
3 baños
253 m² de superficie

The property displays incredible attention to detail, creating a fluid dialogue between heritage and modernity. Exquisite touches abound – in bookshelves, carpentry, flooring, cornicing and appliances – adding to the very special ambiance of this unique home.

A classic example of nineteenth-century Madrid architecture, the building has been completely refurbished with the utmost of care.

The layout has been carefully planned for maximum comfort, convenience and repose.

The accommodation extends to an entrance hall, living room, library, dining room, kitchen, master bedroom with dressing room and en-suite bathroom, two further double bedrooms and one single, all en-suite.

This extraordinary home lies on a direct sightline to the church of San Jerónimo el Real, and offers spectacular views of one of Madrid's most glamourous streets.

An exclusive enclave right in the heart of the city.
